

HEINRICH

red organic 2014

CHARACTER

Alluring red fruitiness over subtle background of herbal spice is the cheerful invitation to taste, smell; sense. Rather than a power pack, this is much more an encounter with a dapper bon vivant that feels at one with himself and his environment. Soft silky, tightly woven tannin provides a well-structured spine and persistent tension on the palate. Thanks to the cool 2014 vintage, the fruit-laden aroma splendour that unfolds is simultaneously refreshed with vibrant acidity and the pleasant bite of a freshly picked blood orange. Sophisticated simplicity; simply sophisticated.

ORIGIN

The “red” is sourced from both sides of the Neusiedler See (Lake Neusiedl). On the west side, vines are rooted in the limestone and schist of the Leithaberg (Leitha Mountains) slopes – on the east side of the lake grapes in the gravelly of the Parndorfer Platte (Parndorfer Plain) and humus-rich Heideboden.

GENESIS

Bottled with conscientious handcraft and great care throughout the entire life cycle. The vineyards are cultivated organically. Handpicked mid-September to the beginning of October, spontaneous fermentation, two weeks maceration on the skins in wooden fermentation vat and steel tank, matured for over a year in wood cask.
