If our red were a human being, it would now, with its nearly 15 years, likely be in the midst of the worst phase of puberty - defiant and rebellious. But quietly and calmly, it utilised the freedoms that we gave it over the years in order to develop greatly and to become a grown-up. Which is why, now, it wants to stand with its older siblings as an equal - and not in their shadow. Taste it as if you weren't familiar with it. You will see that it already brings a surprising seriousness, but it certainly is not a child of sadness.

Apropos: red is good with meals, afternoon snacks, for picnics, as a party gift - or simply on its own. And there is the perfect size for every occasion - from .375 liter to .75 liter, and 1.5 liters to the big 3-liter size. All make for a good choice.

Characteristics: Minimalistic and reduced to what is essential. This means drinking pleasure with niveau, fine fruit, earthy flavours, beautifully integrated tannins and not too much alcohol. The wine for any event and for every (good) meal!
